

INTERN GRAPHIC DESIGN

(M/W/D)

RCKT.

RCKT is looking for a creative graphic design/art direction intern (m/f/d) with a hands-on mentality who wants to join our awesome creative team.

JOB DESCRIPTION

As a design intern at RCKT, you will help to create and develop brand identities, editorial projects, illustrations, and animations for both digital and printed media. In this position, you will be part of a multi-disciplinary design team of graphic designers, motion designers, UX/UI, illustrators and 3D designers. One of the highlights of the internship will be that you'll work for well-known brands such as Volkswagen, Klarna, Commerzbank, and many more.

YOUR PROFILE

- You are a curious and dedicated digital native keen to develop your skills in creative projects.
- You are positive, responsible and enjoy working in an international team.
- You are curious about trends and approach design from a contemporary and digital angle.
- You have excellent Adobe Suite skills (Illustrator, Photoshop, Indesign) and maybe you are even familiar with After Effects and Sketch.
- You speak at least advanced English (German is not a must)

WHAT WE OFFER

- A paid internship where you are directly involved in our projects thanks to our interdisciplinary teams.
- The possibility to prove your talent and to develop with us while you take responsibility for your work.
- An open and friendly environment with flat hierarchies where you can work with a high degree of autonomy.
- A beautiful office in Berlin where you will not only hone your skills, but also meet amazing people.
